SOMERSET COUNTY PARK COMMISSION
GOLF COURSES REMAIN OPEN
Measures in Effect to Ensure Safety

BRIDGEWATER, NJ – The Somerset County Park Commission (SCPC) has suspended numerous programs and activities in response to the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) pandemic. General use parks (excluding bathrooms, playgrounds and leash-free dog parks), trails, and golf remain open.

To ensure the safety of golfers, temporary regulations are in place at all five golf courses including Neshanic Valley Golf Course and Learning Center on South Branch Road in Neshanic Station; Quail Brook Golf Course on New Brunswick Road in Somerset; Spooky Brook Golf Course at Colonial Park in Somerset; Green Knoll Golf Course on Garretson Road in Bridgewater; and Warrenbrook Golf Course on Warrenville Road in Warren Township.

The following measures are being taken at these facilities to keep Golf Operations staff and players safe, assuring everyone that the Park Commission is going above and beyond to limit the spread of the Coronavirus:

- All five clubhouses and the Learning Center will be restricted to a single point-of-entry to enable the effective monitoring of the number of patrons entering same.
- The number of golf patrons in the clubhouses and Learning Center will be limited to four at any given time.
- Cash will not be accepted at any golf course.
- Credit cards will be swiped by the golf patron at the point of sale, and gift cards and identification tags will be scanned by managers and attendants from a distance to eliminate common touching of objects.
- Driving range tokens will be sanitized after each use.
- Golf patrons are reminded that walking is permitted at all five golf courses and the Learning Center at Neshanic Valley, and those golfers who can comfortably walk are encouraged to do so to support social distancing.
- There will be no golf carts at the Academy Course at the Learning Center at Neshanic Valley. Golfers playing there may only walk.
- Golf play at Neshanic Valley will be limited to only two of the three nine-hole courses.
- Golf carts will be thoroughly sanitized after each round by Commission staff.
- Where and when available, all golf courses will offer golf patrons the ability to ride solo in golf cars.
- Golf patrons are reminded that flags may be left in golf holes while putting so as to minimize common touching.

The SCPC trail system throughout the county remains open for personal exercise and dog walking on a leash. All general use parks (excluding bathrooms, playgrounds and leash-free dog areas), and gardens, will remain open during normal hours. The SCPC continues to ensure that Somerset County Parks provide safe public spaces to be utilized to seek a respite the pressures of the from COVID-19 pandemic.
